

ATLANTA SCHOOL GUIDE DELIVERS RESULTS!

“In the last two years, ads placed in the Atlanta School Guide have generated more inquiries for Brandon Hall than ads placed in any other local education guide, education issue or education supplement.” —Marcia Shearer, Director of Admissions, Brandon Hall School

“Strategically, we have decided to advertise only with companies we can directly credit for new interest. Atlanta School Guide delivers a return on our money—we consistently have prospective parents attending our open houses after seeing our ad in your publication. Your guide seems to be the “E.F. Hutton” for schools looking to advertise in the Metro Atlanta area.”
—Sarah Christopher, Director of Advancement, Eastminster School

“We have received greater success from advertising in the Atlanta School Guide than from any other publication we currently advertise in. We ask every caller how they found us, and so far, I can attribute 50 new clients directly to our ad in your publication.”
—Dennis Freeman, Owner & Director, In-Home Tutors

“We decided to advertise in the Atlanta School Guide because it is the best school guide I’ve seen in years, and I’ve been in independent school marketing and admissions since 1991!”
—Fred McGaughan, The Knox School, St. James, New York

“We have been amazed at the number of people who have said they saw Hebron Christian Academy’s ad in the Atlanta School Guide and also Newcomer magazine. That is exactly the result we wanted: for others to see the school and recognize all that we offer our students. Advertising in your magazines have given the school the unique opportunity to reach a very specific audience of Atlanta parents and also new residents who’ve relocated to our area.”
—Deborah Lee, Director of Advancement, Hebron Christian Academy

“I am a parent first and foremost; and I am a picky parent at that. I understand what parents need and want. I also understand the resources they use to look for this type of information. After running only our first ad in your Atlanta School Guide the response has not only been encouraging but overwhelming. We received 43 calls or emails within the first 30 days that I can trace specifically from your magazine.” —Jackie Ubiles, Founder, Little Linguists International Preschool

“We ask all families considering enrollment how they learned about our school. Newcomer magazine and the Atlanta School Guide are the sources most often mentioned. Needless to say, we want to make the best use of our advertising dollars, and we all agree that these two publications are the best choice for us. No other publications have been as effective in helping us communicate to prospective families.” —Lynne Floyd, Director of Development, Eastside Christian School

“After advertising in your publication we actually had families visiting us that said they saw our ad in the Atlanta School Guide. We like working with you because of your excitement and passion for what you do! Your publication is great. Your service is great. Thanks!”
—Jack Hibbs, Principal, Faith Lutheran School

“A lot of families at our school tours found us from our ad in your magazine. We don’t advertise anywhere else—the Atlanta School Guide does it all for us! The staff is always on top of things, sends out friendly reminders and are just genuinely pleased to have our business.”
—Jessica Hayslip, Director, Peachtree Road Lutheran Preschool

“We have had many inquiries and new applicants from parents who saw our ad in the Atlanta School Guide. We appreciate your enthusiasm and your commitment to making sure we are getting the best advertising for our money. The articles and information in the Atlanta School Guide make it a great resource for parents.” —Karen Powell, Admissions Director, Arlington Christian School

“We can’t often tell if advertising is working, but in this case, I’d have to say the Atlanta School Guide is doing its job! As a result of the many inquiries we’ve received from the Atlanta area, we are considering hosting informational fairs for our boarding school there.”

—Celeste Brooks, Public Relations, Randolph-Macon Academy, Front Royal, Virginia

“The ad concept and design that your company created for us is literally ringing the phones off the hook. Our ad is working! Your publication has proven to be a great success for us!”

—Shelley Margow, Marketing Director, Children’s Therapy Works

We immediately decided to advertise in Atlanta School Guide when one of our follow-up teacher surveys indicated that your publication was one of the top sources they used to plan their field trips and outreach programs. —Laurel Askue, Manager of Education Marketing and Development, Zoo Atlanta

“The Atlanta School Guide is the best marketing and advertising our school has ever done!”

—Kristen Mullen, Admission Director, Peachtree Road Lutheran School Preschool

“I enjoy your enthusiasm and your accommodation. You all are very enjoyable to work with, and you also put out great magazines. Both Atlanta School Guide* and Newcomer magazine are very well done. They are at the top of our list for our client Woodward Academy.”

—Jenna Downey, Account Services, Nolen and Associates (Ad Agency for Woodward Academy)

“The Atlanta School Guide has proven to be an invaluable and effective marketing tool for our school. In fact, many families have found Mount Paran by using the guide and have ended up applying here.”

—Kathleen McCook, Director of Marketing & Communications, Mount Paran Christian School

“After running our first ad in your publication, we received over 30 phone calls within the first two months. Not only that, but they specifically mentioned that they called because they saw our ad in the Atlanta School Guide. We are extremely pleased with the effectiveness and the results of your publication!”

—Chris King, Head of School, Arlington Christian School

“The Ads we ran in both your Newcomer magazine and Atlanta School Guide completely accomplished our goals of increasing our students. Now we are packed and have an abundance of students.”

—Maria Lewis, Public Information Officer, City Schools of Decatur

“The Atlanta School Guide has become the standard for information about Metro Atlanta’s public and independent schools. Informative articles, school listings and display advertisements provide parents the details that assist them in the search for a school that best meets their children’s needs.”

—Paul Stockhammer, President, Brandon Hall School

Advertising with Atlanta School Guide and Newcomer magazine allows us to reach a wider market than we typically reach. I will soon be discontinuing all of our other metro-wide marketing. But I feel it’s vital to maintain one metro-wide marketing relationship, and your publications are the ones within which I am most comfortable maintaining our presence.” —Amy Riley, Director of Admissions, The Heritage School

“The Atlanta School Guide is the only publication we advertise in that is exclusively dedicated to education. You produce a quality piece that has very strong distribution.”

—Brian Uitvlugt, Vice President/Admissions, Eaton Academy

“After advertising in the Atlanta School Guide, we received many calls about field trips from schools and churches. On another note, I love your upbeat attitude and your prompt attention.”

—Dyanne L. Carpenter, Executive Director, Johns Creek Arts Center

“Atlanta School Guide has exceptional demographics and distribution. Your market is a good niche, which allows us to easily reach parents. Being able to directly target our market really sets your publication out from the pack. We also include a coupon code on our ads and are seeing them being used.” —Daniel Summers, Marketing Director, Center for Puppetry Arts

“Since our initial advertisement in your Winter/Spring 2007 issue we have received several reference to your publication from our new incoming families. Thank you for your great publication and also for making it so easy to advertise.” —Mary Schoppman, Development and P.R., Saint Francis School

“We are extremely pleased with our advertising in the Atlanta School Guide. Not only have we received a considerable increase in inquiries about our school, but we have also enrolled 20 new students within our first 6 months of advertising in your publication. Thank you very much!”

—Maki Brown, Assistant Business Manager, Seigakuin Atlanta International School

“We have been getting a great response from our ad in the *Atlanta School Guide in terms of inquiries for our services. Thank you!” —Alicia Francois-Calhoun, Owner, Franca Consulting Group

“I am so excited about the increased enrollment we are experiencing, and your publications have contributed to this! Advertising has not only helped our school receive a record number of inquiries, but it has also helped us reach near capacity for our next school year. Thank you for making this process easy for a busy principal.” —Barbara Hines, Principal, Covenant Christian School

“We enjoy working with Atlanta School Guide because you consistently deliver what you promise. Your magazine has helped us increase exposure for our vacation/study tour programs from the Atlanta region.”

—Bill Tipton, Executive Director, Brunswick & the Golden Isles CVB

“The Atlanta School Guide has allowed us to increase exposure for our educational arts programs and to reach our target market economically. We like the high quality of your publication, the large distribution and the friendly staff.” —Jihan Francois, Director of Marketing & Communications, Young Audiences, Woodruff Arts Center
